"With a Voice of Singing" — Martin Shaw

Processional Hymn "Praise the Lord! Ye Heavens, Adore Him"

*Praise the Lord! ye heavens, adore him;
Praise him, angels, in the height;
Sun and moon, rejoice before him;
Praise him, all ye stars of light.
Praise the Lord; for he hath spoken;
Worlds his mighty voice obeyed;
Laws which never shall be broken
For their guidance he hath made.*

*Praise the Lord! for he is glorious;
Never shall his promise fail;
God hath made his saints victorious;
Sin and death shall not prevail.
Praise the God of our salvation!
Hosts on high, his power proclaim;
Heaven, and earth, and all creation,
Laud and magnify his name. Amen*

Opening of the Meeting Jonathan F. Moody, Ph.D.
Chaplain of the College

Responsive Reading Valerie A. Hubbard
Graduating Senior

O GOD, HOW FULL OF WONDER AND SPLENDOR YOU ARE!
I see the reflections of Your beauty and hear the sounds of Your majesty wherever I turn.

EVEN THE BABBLING OF BABES
AND THE LAUGHTER OF CHILDREN
SPELL OUT YOUR NAME IN INDEFINABLE SYLLABLES,
When I gaze into star-studded skies
and attempt to comprehend the vast distances,
I CONTEMPLATE IN UTTER AMAZEMENT
MY CREATOR'S CONCERN FOR ME.

I am dumbfounded that You should care personally about me.
AND YET YOU HAVE MADE ME IN YOUR IMAGE
AND YOU HAVE CALLED ME YOUR CHILD.

You have ordained me as Your priest and have chosen me to be Your servant.
YOU HAVE ASSIGNED TO ME THE
FANTASTIC RESPONSIBILITY OF
CARRYING ON YOUR CREATIVE ACTIVITY
O God, how full of wonder and splendor You are!

(Adapted from Leslie Brandt, Psalms/Now)

WHAT WE CALL THE BEGINNING IS OFTEN THE END
 AND TO MAKE AN END IS TO MAKE A BEGINNING.
 THE END IS WHERE WE START FROM.
 With the drawing of this love and the voice of this calling
 we shall not cease from exploration
 And the end of all our exploring will be to arrive where we started
 And know the place for the first time.
 THROUGH THE UNKNOWN, REMEMBERED GATE
 WHEN THE ALST OF EARTH LEFT TO DISCOVER
 IS WHAT WHICH WAS THE BEGINNING:

At the source of the longest river
 The voice of the hidden waterfall
 And the children in the apple-tree
 NOT KNOWN, BECAUSE NOT LOOKED FOR
 BUT HEARD, HALF-HEARD, IN THE STILLNESS
 BETWEEN TWO WAVES OF THE SEA,
 Quick now, here, now, always —
 A condition of complete simplicity
 (Costing not less than everything)
 AND ALL SHALL BE WELL AND
 ALL MANNER OF THINGS SHALL BE WELL
 When the tongues of flames are in-folded
 Into the crowned knot of fire
 And the fire and the rose are one.

(Adapted from T. S. Eliot, The Four Quartets)

"Making Molehills Out of Mountains"

Hymn .. "God of Our Life, Through All the Circling Years"

God of our life, through all the circling years. We trust in thee;
 In all the past, through all our hopes and fears, Thy hand we see.
 With each new day, when morning lifts the veil,
 We own thy mercies, Lord, which never fail.

God of the past, our times are in thy hand; With us abide.
 Lead us by faith to hope's true promised land; Be thou our guide.
 With thee to bless, the darkness shines as light,
 And faith's fair vision changes into sight.

God of the coming years, through paths unknown; We follow thee;
 When we are strong, Lord, leave us not alone; Our refuge be.
 Be thou for us in life our daily bread,
 Our heart's true home when all our years have sped.

Benediction Jonathan F. Moody, Ph.D.

Postlude Orpha Ochse, Ph.D.

ALMA MATER

*When the dews of eve are falling,
 Glistening on the campus loved so well,
 Then our hearts to thee are calling
 Dear old Whittier we love so well.*

CHORUS

*Our hearts belong to thee forever,
 They thrill with love for thee most dear,
 Our loyalty fades never,
 We'll be ever true to Whittier.*

THE MACE

During the middle ages the mace was carried into battle by churchmen, who were forbidden by church law to bear edged weapons. The mace was later carried before the king by his bodyguard and eventually became the symbol of authority. A mace is now commonly used by governments and by institutions of higher learning in ceremonial procession.

ACADEMIC REGALIA

The history of academic costume and ceremony dates from 12th century Europe, to the medieval universities of Paris, Bologna, Oxford, and Cambridge. Originally, the university was an association of "Masters of Arts" and the degree was the step taken to become a full member, not unlike the guild system in other fields. The new Master was admitted to begin teaching; the word "Commencement" described that rite of passage. As years passed, differentiations in levels of learning were made into Bachelors, Masters, and Doctors.

The most common articles of daily attire then were long flowing gowns and cloaks, with hood attached for headwear; subsequently, hats became prominent. Even as popular fashions changed, that particular dress remained for academic and other callings. In England, details of scholars' apparel and occasions for use were strictly prescribed by university statutes.

The origin of the Oxford "mortarboard" cap is a mystery. It might have been shaped after a book, a master workman's mortarboard, or the quadrangular Oxford campus. It may well have evolved from forcing the rather square-shaped, outdoor biretta over the close-fitting, indoor skull cap commonly worn by university scholars in medieval times. The earliest versions were decorated on top with a tuft, later elongated into a tassel.

American academic regalia is an inheritance primarily from Britain, though no longer worn as frequently. The 1895 Intercollegiate Code provides our fundamental regulation. Gowns for all three degree levels are basic black and similar in shape, though sleeve patterns differ: long and pointed for Bachelors; oblong for Masters; bell-shaped for Doctors. Doctoral gowns are faced with velvet, with three bars per sleeve. The black mortarboard cap is common to all degrees.

The hood is the most distinctive feature of academic dress. Our system enables distinction of degree level, college or university, and discipline, though proliferation of fields and institutions does not always allow easy identification. All basic black, hoods become somewhat longer and wider with higher degrees. All are lined inside with silk in the academic colors of the institution which conferred that degree. Various shades and patterns are utilized to combine colors.

The field is indicated by the outer velvet trim on the hood, which becomes broader with the higher degrees. Historical associations have been retained. The white border for Arts and Letters emanates from the fur trim of the Oxford and Cambridge Bachelor of Arts. Red is the traditional color of the Church; hence, scarlet for Theology. The royal purple of King's Court signifies the Law. Green, the color of medicinal herbs, stands for Medicine. Golden yellow indicates Science, for through research untold wealth has been given to the world. The Oxford pink has been adhered to for Music. The russet brown of Forestry is a tribute to the old-time dress of English foresters. Blue, the color of wisdom and truth, represent Philosophy and now adorns most who possess the Doctor of Philosophy regardless of discipline.
